

Way You're Made - Alli Rogers up and down and round and round I see the ride and girl I know it well I know it well you're feeling complicated your edges are fraying

this is not a way that you're broken this is a way you're made I see the ocean tearing you up inside but each time the wind picks up it doesn't mean you're stuck inside the hurricane it's just your heart learning the art of riding the waves

vs.2
sometimes we all run away from anger, fear and shame - we push it down we push it down but yours is on your face dear It's filling up the space here

inside the hurricane

Bridge: cry, sweat and bleed girl - just BE where you're at the courage you need girl, you already have and you are not broken you are beautifully made I see the ocean tearing you up inside

inside the hurricane
